PARENT BLOGGERS LOVE JUICE BOX HEROES

Positive reviews for their debut CD spread across the web

It didn't take long for Mommy and Daddy bloggers from around the country to take notice of Juice Box Heroes. The new children's music artists, whose debut CD No Sugar Added takes songs from past and parodies them for kids, have received glowing reviews from bloggers around the country. Here's a quick sampling of positive quotes from recognizable Mommy and Daddy bloggers:

"This CD is so good (my son) has listened to it every night at bed time since we received it and he is a pain when it comes to music so that is how I know it is good. Every night when I put (him) to bed I ask him what CD he wants to listen to and he tells me 'Dad, the same one I listen to every night, Juice Box Heroes'. –LookWhatMomFound.com

"This CD literally rocks. Mike, Lucas, and I LOVE it! We all dance and sing and just act like total goofballs every time No Sugar Added is in the CD player. It is the only kid's CD that I can honestly say that I enjoy. I mean--there are some that I can tolerate or kind of get into, but No Sugar Added just ROCKS. It is music made for both the kids and the parents." –JollyMom.com

"I think (my son's) favorite song was track number three, One Year old, he was going, na na na na na. I love it when music inspires my kids to get to singing and dancing. He seems to just love this CD in general." –Momstart.com

Heralded as song favorites for parents, fun new lyrics for kids, Juice Box Heroes takes the very best songs from the past and parodies them for young kids. Their debut CD No Sugar Added includes remakes of songs like Rick Springfield's "Jessie's Girl" ("Puppy's Fur"), J. Geils Band's "Centerfold" ("One Year Old"), and Lynard Skynard's "Sweet Home Alabama" ("Sweet Dreamin' Pajamas"). Their debut CD No Sugar Added has already been recognized as a winner of Dr. Toy's "Best Picks/New Products" Award and their unique creative music for kids is quickly spreading across the country.
